Molas have their origin in body painting. Only after colonization by the Spanish and contact with missionaries did the indigenous people of Panama and Columbia, the Kuna, start to transfer their traditional geometric designs onto fabric.

We NEED More Volunteers

Our volunteers are so vital to the support we provide the libraries. We could use Your Help. Think about it -- work in the bookstores, help at the big sales events, come regularly and help sort the thousands of donations! Contact us for more information: leave a message at 955-3829 or inquire to friends@santafelibraryfriends.org. Put "Attn: volunteer coordinator" in the subject line.

Mayor Coss Praises Library Volunteers in State of the City Speech

“It’s not just the city employees who make our City programs work, it’s also citizens who give their time and energy. Our senior services have benefited from more than one-hundred seventy-thousand volunteer hours from retired senior volunteers and senior companion volunteers, that amounts to more than 82 full-time employees. Our libraries benefited from more than thirteen-thousand volunteer hours last year, which is equivalent to more than six extra full-time employees. One thing these Library volunteers did was raise money to bring in teenagers and provide fun, safe, things to do. It worked. Our libraries brought in sixty percent more teenagers this year. Volunteers magnify the investment in our libraries and the services available to our seniors and youth and that makes this a stronger, healthier, more engaged community”.

Third Annual Santa Fe Alternative Gift Market December 14, 15, 16 -- Options That Keep on Giving

Shoppers interested in gift-giving that benefits those in need are invited to attend the third annual Santa Fe Alternative Gift Market, beginning with a grand opening celebration Friday evening December 14th, from 5:00-7:00 pm, with a ribbon cutting by Mayor David Coss.

The event is open all the weekend of the 15th and 16th during mall hours at the DeVargas Mall in Santa Fe. Hours are 9:00 a.m.-8:00 pm on Saturday and 10:00am-6:00 pm on Sunday.

Last year, over $3,000 was raised for the Santa Fe Public Library which enabled us to purchase children’s and teen’s books and programs.

Participants can select tax-deductible gifts that provide urgently needed assistance to local and international organizations that help provide medical help, shelter and food, literacy training, and assistance to homeless veterans.

Gift givers can choose from more than 60 different items. The choice is enormous. For example, the gifts range from providing visits to dentists for Santa Fe children through La Familia Medical Center to legal representation for a girl rescued from sexual slavery in Asia; from sending a bicycle to rural health workers in Zambia to buying a children’s book for Santa Fe’s Public Library; and paying for one night’s stay in Santa Fe’s Interfaith Shelter.

Visitors to the market will also be able to enjoy light refreshments including hot cider and holiday-baked goods while considering their donations.

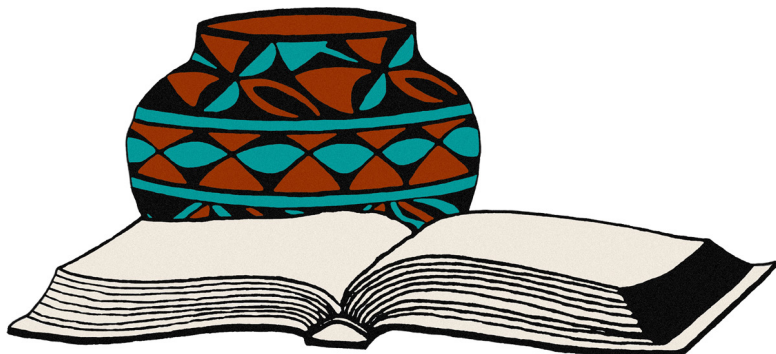

Alternative Gifts International (<http://www.altgifts.org/>) is a non-profit organization that inspires support for humanitarian and environmental causes. It offers donors the option to designate charitable gifts through carefully selected agencies in the name of their relatives, friends and associates.

Library Event HOW HOLLYHOCKS CAME TO NEW MEXICO by Rudolfo Anaya

The new bilingual children's book by Rudolfo Anaya, How Hollyhocks Came To New Mexico, is scheduled for release at a Meet, Greet & Signing party at the Santa Fe Public Library Main Community Room on Sunday, November 25, 2-4pm, at 145 Washington Ave.

The book has Spanish translation by award-winning author Nasario Garcia of Santa Fe. The illustrations for the book are by award-winning artist Nicolás Otero of Los Lunas.

The event is free and a holiday drop-in for people to see the original art, meet Nasario Garcia and Nicolas Otero, and depending on health, meet one of New Mexico's literary treasures, Rudolfo Anaya. Anaya is a recipient of the National Endowment for the Arts National Medal of Arts, winner of many New Mexico Book Awards, The Governor of New Mexico's Award, NEA fellowships, as well as many other awards. He is regarded as the father of Hispanic literature in America.

Proceeds from all sales at the event benefit the Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library.

NOTE: In the event that health prevents Anaya from coming to Santa Fe, signed books will be available at the event.
